The Broome County Council of Churches is accepting applications until March 8 for free home wheelchair ramps. Over the past four summers, approximately 295 youths, working with adult supervision, construction 48 ramps via the council's youth mentoring initiative.

It takes several weeks to evaluate each application and the need for a free ramp, according to the group. Construction will take place during the summer months. For an application, contact Joanne Kays at (607) 724-9130 ext. 304 or visit www.broomecouncil.net.
